	It is against rule to touch opponent's side apart from with your shoes and palm.

【The opponent gets 1 point even if you hit the back row attack】

If the back row attack is used during a rally, the opponent gets 1 point even if the team that used the back row attack has won the rally.

【Volleyball passing outside of a maker is a ball out】

The ball is out when the volleyball crosses outside the antenna (including above the antenna) regardless of whether it is the first, second or third contact.

【About over-the-net foul】

It would be over-the-net foul in the following cases. The following are not permitted as blocking. Many people misunderstand this but it is the same interpretation as the JVA.

- In the case when you disturb a toss in the opponent's space
- In the case when you touch the volleyball before in the opponent's space before the opponent's spike the ball
- In the case when you spike the ball with one hand in the opponent's space
- In the case when you push the ball with one hand in the opponent's space
- In the case when you touch the ball which will not return unless you touch it in the opponent's space

【About net violation】

- It is a foul if you touch the net, antenna or string during a rally.
 - It is a foul if you hit the net immediately after a rally.
- Above will be a net violation in comparison to other game.
- It is a foul to hit, hold or lean against the net after the rally regardless of other game.
- (The opponent's team will get 1 point when touching the net is deemed as the breach of manners)
